Missions

Pictured below is Amy Czarnik and the mission team from Diriamba, Nicaragua. Amy, a college student and longtime KFBC member, went on Mission to Nicaragua earlier this year to encourage and build up families in small rural villages and help the local churches distribute God's word to the people. This trip was a true inspiration to Amy. She reports that she and the rest of her college team have, "returned to our campus ministry stronger and better equipped to share the gospel with students. Thank you for making this trip possible."

This trip was funded by Amy's own work and fundraising, but also in part by your donations to the KFBC Faith Missions fund. This fund supports missions and ministry locally and abroad throughout the year. Please know that your generosity here is being distributed to areas of great need around the globe.
